

OVERVIEW OF SYLLABUS AND SKILLS

Chapter No	Chapter Name	Activities	Values	Skills	Cross-curricular Links
1.	Indian Constitution - Why is Constitution Required? - Role of Constitution in Democratic Societies - How Does the Constitution Define the Nature of India's Democracy? - Federalism - Parliamentary Form of Government - Separation of Powers - Fundamental Rights - Secularism	- Effective monitoring – practical demonstration of different aspects of effective monitoring importance to emphasise on requirement of constitution - Role plays to depict our daily struggles and role of constitution in solving them - Discussion on a given situation - Pop-quizes to assess prior and acquiring knowledge about constitution of India - Presentations on federalism, parliamentary form of government, separation of powers and secularism - Constitutional remedy jar – stating different economical or religious issues and analysing them to find remedy in our constitution - News analysis where news is collected, analysed and summarised in own words	- Realising importance of fundamental duties along with rights - Appreciating the ideologies and vision behind forming our constitution and realise their role in maintaining them today	- Analysing - Discussing - Presenting - Data representation - Collaboration - Communication - Critical thinking	Mathematics - Presenting information through graphic organisers Language - Reading writing and communicating
2.	Secularism - Separation of Religion and State - How Does Indian Secularism Work? - How is Indian Secularism Different from Other Secular Countries?	- New Analysts: Analysing news reports about government steps to maintain peace and secularism in the country simultaneously - Discussion on strategies of interference and non interference in religious matters to work together - Nukkad Natak: a street play prepared by the students depicting the importance of healthy cooperation between different religions - Analysing situations while keeping in mind Indian secularism - Discussions on situations relating to secularism - Watching videos to realise their importance as citizens to keep the spirit of secularism alive in our country	- Realising their responsibility to maintain peace between religions in India - Sharing ideas to spread awareness regarding the principles and rights of secularism in every part of India	- Analysing - Discussing - Debate - Role playing - Collaboration - Communication - Critical thinking	Mathematics - Interpreting pie charts Performing Arts - Street play prepare by students Language - Reading writing and communicating
3.	Indian Parliament - Indian Parliament and Citizens of India - Role of Indian Parliament - People in Indian Parliament - Representatives of People - Constituents of Parliament and its Challenges	- Election Analyst: researching, collecting and assessing data of previous Lok Sabha elections and present them in tabular form - Debate about keeping voting rights restricted to educated people - Reading and interpreting Lok Sabha seating chart - Debate about reserving seats for women in Indian Parliament - Creating a manual for skills and qualifications requirement for their elected representative - Planning and conducting a community project to check valid voter IDs and registration to vote - Revamping Indian Parliament: researching about the election processes and features of governance of different countries and evaluate them to include some best features in our governance	Understanding the importance of keeping themselves aware and participative in the political scenario of our country	- Analysing - Data representing - Debating - Interpreting election charts - Planning and executing projects - Collaboration - Communication - Critical thinking	Mathematics Data interpretation percentage
Chapter No	Chapter Name	Activities	Values	Skills	Cross-curricular Links
	Understanding Laws - Laws in Ancient and Pre-independent India - Making Laws - Unpopular and Controversial Laws	- Interpreting comic strip to understand case and answer questions - Reading and understanding case studies regarding the features of Rule of Law - Reading and understanding landmark case and their judgement - Shayara Bano case - Debate on whether government should take popular public opinion to pass or amend laws - Comparison of social situations of pre-independent India and independent India - Reading and analysing news and current affairs to develop understanding - Creating a law board to gauge understanding of law as known through media, personal opinion, general public opinion and news - Watching video comparing situations before and after independence - Making laws: creating a classroom setup to demonstrate how laws are made in our country	- Encouraging to pursue professions to help maintain law and order in difficult places in our country - Appreciating different professions for their contribution towards maintaining law and order in their country	- Interpreting case studies - Debate - Analysing - Creating - Discussions - Collaboration - Communication - Critical thinking	History - Researching about laws and acts passed by British Raj that were protested by nationalists Language - Reading writing and communicating